

Manna

Bread of heaven
Manna
Daily sustenance Strength flowing from His hand
Provision for all our needs
For life itself
Food for the spirit
Sweet to my soul
No lack
Always outstretched
If we will partake
Bread of heaven
No complaints
Only thanksgiving
Moment by moment
Eating till filled
No fear of tomorrow
Manna awaits
An endless supply
All that I need
From His heart to mine

Author's Note: This poem was written with the Lord's Prayer in mind. "Give us this day our daily bread." Daily bread for my spirit is always available. Sometimes I am like the Israelites, complaining about eating the same food over and over. Tired of having to continually rely on Him for my source of strength, but the miracle is that it is available to me if only I will partake of the spiritual food He has waiting for me.
