

Mission Present

*Early up and out the door.
The mission field as never before.*

I want to serve my Lord today I trust Him to give me the words to say

*I don't have to serve in some distant land
A place where a camel could walk in the sand*

*I could clean the floor, flip an egg or cut a key.
If it's a place to share Christ, there I want to be*

*I am a missionary when I step out the door
Here where I am my spirit will soar.*

*If He wants me to serve in an unknown place,
Or to serve needy people of a distant race.*

A missionary I will be and I

*Whatever, whenever, whoever is my cry.
To share God's salvation to those who will die*

*To pull them back from the flames of eternal torment
This is my call, my mission present.*
