

*A Quiet Heart
In a busy world*

Silence

Is silence the greater part of tranquility?
Do we know how to love before He teaches us?
Can we serve before He shows us His perfect will?
If silence sets the stage for fellowship;
What plays upon that stage?

Love: Uncompromising, powerful and chosen.
Praise: Pure, strong and steadfast.
Service: Selfless, tireless, and determined.

We are to wait to hear His voice
We are expectant of that still small voice.
We are to activate every cell in our body,
Serving Him now and throughout eternity.

Let us deeply yearn for that silence.
Silence, the greater part of tranquility!
