

*I am bid to dwell in the shelter of the Most High,
To rest in His shadow all comforting and bidding nigh.*

*Praise God! The Tree is provided for me to cling.
It casts a cool shadow and a peace it does bring.*

*Praise God! Once again for that blessed Tree
Is none other than the Cross, yes the Cross of Calvary!*

Take Rest in the Cross

*Take rest in your hammock in the land without trees.
There is rest and refreshing at the Cross of Calvary!*

*God's first work of love is to call me to life.
I feel His presence as He gives faith to overcome strife.*

*Where can I secure my hammock for much needed relief.
Since this land is barren without a single leaf.*

*I stand in a land parched and stifling in the pain of life.
I need shelter, I need rest; in darkness I need His light.*

This land has little solace, but His provision is always ready In His arms I dwell, His promises are strong and steady

*As an answer to my cry our Father is always giving.
A reminder of whose I am and that His Word is always living.*

*"He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High
Will rest in the shadow of the Almighty."
(Psalm 91:1)*
